BT701 ADVANCED HERMENEUTICS AND THEOLOGICAL METHOD

Course: BT701 Advanced Hermeneutics and Theological Method (Blended)
Credit: 3 Semester Hrs.
Semester: Fall 2020, Cycle 3 (October 19 - December 11)
Class Mtg: Monday, October 26 – Wednesday October 28, 8:00am – 5:00pm
Location: The Center for Advanced Biblical Research and Engagement, Rm 101
Professor: Dr. Christopher Cone, Th.D, Ph.D, Ph.D / ccone@calvary.edu

I. DESCRIPTION

This course will study biblical hermeneutics focusing on the literal grammatical-historical method. This course will consider comparative and historical methods for biblical interpretation and delineate theological implications for faith and practice. Students will interact with philosophical and practical aspects of hermeneutical theory, comparing methodologies with a literal grammatical-historical hermeneutic, and will compare theological systems deriving from each method.

* This is a blended class, meaning that both campus and online students take this class together. Campus students attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. All interaction and assignments for campus and online students are done in the online classroom.

II. OBJECTIVES

A. General competencies to be achieved. You will:
   1. Determine, through exegetical analysis, the hermeneutic principles and methods applied within the Biblical writings themselves.
      a. Program Objective 1
      b. Assignments A1, B1
   2. Classify, through comparative synthesis, distinctives of each hermeneutic model discussed.
      a. Program Objective 2
      b. Assignments A2, B2
   3. Differentiate hermeneutic factors in assessing theological outcomes and employing practical applications.
      a. Program Objective 4
      b. Assignments C1, C2, C3

B. Specific competencies to be achieved. You will:
   1. Model the distinctive components and methodological principles of an exegitical approach through textual analysis, and a theological approach through comparative synthesis.

Our Mission: “…to prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to the Biblical worldview.”
a. Program Objective 1
   b. Assignments A1, B1, C3

2. Identify and explain a formal hermeneutic model based on synthesis of competing models.
   a. Program Objective 3
   b. Assignments A2, B1, C3

3. Compare theological outcomes and their hermeneutic influences.
   a. Program Objective 4
   b. Assignments C1, C2, C3

4. Report research on the hermeneutic methods of Biblical writers and how hermeneutic factors in their writing impact their prescriptions.
   a. Program Objective 5
   b. Assignments C2, C3

III. REQUIRED MATERIALS

A. Bible
   The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB), English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

B. Original Language Bible Study Software (Accordance, Bible Works, Logos, or equivalent)
   Students are required to have digital resources to engage Biblical study in the original languages, including but not limited to Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (BHS), Nestle Aland 28 (NA28) – both including critical apparatus; Septuaginta (LXX), A Greek Lexicon of the New Testament and Other Early Christian Literature (BDAG) by Bauer, Danker, Arndt, and Gingrich; Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament (HALOT) by Koehler and Baumgartner.

C. Other Textbooks
   * required texts labeled as electronic below are included in the course materials in the online classroom:

Cone, Christopher. Prolegomena on Biblical Hermeneutics and Method, 2nd Ed. Fort Worth, TX: Tyndale Seminary Press. 2016. 978-1938484032. $21.00

IV. EVALUATION OF STUDENT PERFORMANCE (1000 points)

A. Attendance and Participation (240 points)
   (1) All students must attend class. Campus students are required to attend all modules in person at the scheduled time and location. Online students are required to attend by viewing or listening to the class recording within 24 hours of its posting in the online classroom. Points for attendance will accrue based on successful completion, as listed below.

   (2) All students must participate in classroom discussion through the online classroom, beginning no later than 24 hours after the class recording is posted in the online classroom. This discussion is part of the contact time for the course, and will include answering the weekly discussion question (identified in the weekly lectures) with at least a 300-word response, interacting with responses of other students and, and interacting with the professor. Points for participation will accrue based on successful completion, as listed below.

B. Reading and Reading Accountability (400 points)
   (1) Students will complete all assigned reading as listed in the Course Schedule, and (2) will write (and present, as instructed) a 1000-1500-word report on each assigned reading (sometimes there may be more than one reading assigned per class). Reading summaries should be reflective and should include two elements: (a) an objective summary of the reading, and (b) a justified critique or affirmation of the ideas presented in the reading.

C. Research and Writing (360 points)
Students will complete three major research projects on the following topics, in Turabian style:

1. Hermeneutic Overview (Due 3/29): Write a 4000-word hermeneutic overview discussing (a) place in worldview, (b) structure and organization, (c) bases for legitimacy, (d) essential principles, and (e) necessary outcomes and implications.

2. Exegetical Overview (Due 4/12): Apply hermeneutic principles to a section of Scripture, and write a brief exegesis overview of 3000 words on an approved Scripture of the students choosing, consisting of the following components:
   a. Text and translation summary, 300 words
   b. Context overview, 300 words
   c. Structural summary, 300 words
   d. Grammatical and syntactical highlights, 300 words
   e. Biblical and theological context overview, 300 words
   f. Secondary verification summary, 500 words, 10 good academic primary and secondary sources
   g. Exposition, 1000 words

3. Journal Article (Due 5/3): Write a journal quality article of 7000-9000 words on an approved topic related to one of the four specific course objectives. This assignment must also be submitted to a peer reviewed academic journal.
