It's an exciting time to study science! Scientific discoveries are made every day and our understanding of nature has increased incredibly. Some suggest that the Bible is inconsistent with science. However, on the contrary, science and the Bible are completely consistent, and this should strengthen our faith as we discover more and more about the incredible, awesome nature of our Creator God! Those with a secular worldview try to use science to "disprove" the Bible. You will find that knowing some science will help you defend your faith when these fallacious arguments are used.

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

SCIA101 D&DN (3 hrs) This course is a broad introduction to the fundamentals, philosophies, and apologetics of science from the biblical worldview. Emphasis is placed on a conceptual understanding of the basic principles of physics, chemistry, biology, geology, and astronomy from a biblical perspective.

SCIA101 D&DN are blended classes, meaning that both campus and online students take this class together. Campus students attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. All interaction and assignments for campus and online students are done in the online classroom.

- 1) Demonstrate an understanding of the fundamental concepts of science from the biblical worldview.
 - a. Program Objectives 1 and 3.
 - b. Assessments – homework and exams.

Our Mission: "...to prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to the Biblical worldview."

III. REQUIREMENTS:

All students will be expected to:

- Complete reading assignments, listen to lectures, and complete homework, essays, and tests on schedule. The schedule will be posted on Canvas.
- Participate actively in lectures. Use of computers or cell phones during lectures for any non-academic, non-class related (non-class websites, texting, calls, etc.) purpose is not allowed. Taking pictures for academic reasons is acceptable. Computers may be used for working problems, taking notes, or other reasons approved by the instructor.

IV. METHODS:

- A. LECTURES: Lectures will consist of material from a variety of sources. Students should take notes during lectures as the homework questions will be directly related to the lectures.
- B. READING: Reading material will consist of material from the internet or materials provided by the professor. There is no required textbook.
- C. HOMEWORK QUESTIONS: Homework questions will normally be completed using Canvas. It is imperative that you complete the homework problems in order to understand the material and to do well on tests. The concepts covered on the homework (and biblical worldview essays) will be used to create the test questions.
- D. BIBLICAL WORLDVIEW ESSAYS: The purpose of this portion of the class is to develop your ability to understand the biblical worldview of science and to learn that you can defend your faith (1 Peter 3:15) using science. You will read articles or watch videos and then prepare essays that demonstrate your understanding of the topics. The concepts covered on the essays (and the homework) will be used to create the test questions.

Essays must follow the APA style according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th edition except as noted in this paragraph. Essays should be around one-half page, single spaced, using Times New Roman 12 font. Essays should not be longer than one page. Do not include a title page or a reference page. Put a descriptive title and your name and date at the top of the page. Include the reference after the bottom of the essay. You will be graded on content and understanding of the topics. Your writing should be clear and concise. Proper writing style including clarity, grammar, and punctuation will be considered during grading. Do not use first person. Discuss what the article or video said and means, not what you think about it. Make sure you use quotation marks as needed.

Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own.

- E. TESTS: The concepts covered on the homework and biblical worldview essays will be used to create the test questions. Test questions for the comprehensive portion of the final will be taken from the regular tests.

Students not taking tests during the class period on campus will need to use the ProctorU test proctoring service. See the ProctorU addendum at the end of this syllabus.

- F. MISSED OR LATE HOMEWORK OR BIBLICAL WORLDVIEW ESSAYS: Grades on late homework and biblical worldview essays will be decreased for each day that they are late. Assignments that are more than one week late will not be accepted and will receive no credit.

Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

Costs for ProctorU exams are listed below and are payable to ProctorU at the time of the test. These costs assume that a student will schedule their exam at least 72 hours in advance of the exam start time:

- 60 minutes or less - $8
- 61 – 120 minutes - $10
- 121 – 180 minutes - $12

For those not scheduling an exam at least 72 hours in advance, late scheduling charges are added in addition to the above fee structure. There are two options for late scheduling:

- “Take It Soon” allows a test to be scheduled less than 72 hours but more than 24 hours before the desired start time. This option includes an additional fee of $8.00. (Total cost for a 60 minute exam scheduled as “Take It Soon” would be $16.)
- “Take It Now” allows a test to be taken on-demand with no appointment needed. This option includes an additional fee of $12.00. (Total cost for a 60 minute exam scheduled as “Take It Now” would be $20.)

These options are for the convenience of the examinee. Any charges applicable to the examinee must be paid with a credit or debit card. The test taker will be required to enter payment information on a secure page connected to a third-party card processor. The page is encrypted and secure and ProctorU does not see or store any credit card data.

Examinees will be required to re-enter payment information each time new charges are incurred.
