DESCRIPTION

This course shows the student how to communicate biblical truth from sound exegesis. The course builds on exegesis in the Hebrew Old Testament and in the Greek New Testament. The goal of the course is to integrate exegesis and exposition. The student will write out exegetical outlines and expositions of Bible texts that reflect the argument of the biblical author. The student will evaluate contemporary Bible expositors and gain insights into becoming a creative Bible teacher and preacher.

This is a blended class, meaning that both campus and online students take this class together. Campus students attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. All interaction and assignments for campus and online students are done in the online classroom.

OBJECTIVES

General competencies to be achieved. You will:

- 1.Be able to preach and teach relevant Biblical messages that explain, illustrate and apply the word of God to life (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 3, 4, 5)
- 2.Evaluate expository preachers of the word of God (PLO 1, 2,3) (A 1, 2)

3. Discover hermeneutical and homiletical principles for preaching and teaching various biblical genre (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A1, 2)

4. Develop critical skills in listening to and evaluating sermons (PLO 3) (A 2)

Specific competencies to be achieved. You will:

1. Learn how to make an exegetical outline from a grammatical diagram (PLO 1, 2) (A 3)

2. Learn how to preach and teach various biblical genre (Old Testament narratives, Psalms, Wisdom books, OT prophetic literature, NT gospels, NT epistles). (PLO 1, 2) (A 4)

3. Write an exegetical paper that reflects the biblical argument of the author (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 5)

TEXTBOOKS

The Bible- KJV, NKJV, NASB, ESV

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

HELP FOR STUDENTS

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu) is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.

EXPECTATIONS

Attend class in person and/or in Microsoft Teams. Each PhD student is expected to be at every class on time. Make class attendance a priority.

Do not plagiarize. Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own.

Use Turabian style for all research papers. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 edition.
