III. REQUIREMENTS (ASSESSMENTS)

- A. Reading. You will be expected to complete the assigned reading from Cairns and Shelley. As you read the assignments, pay attention to the general threads of history, and how specific individuals and events fit within the patterns of these movements. Also, you will be required to read Noll's Turning Points: Decisive Moments in the History of Christianity. You will be asked to verify the percent of the assigned reading from the Cairns and Shelley when you take the final exam.
- B. Paper. Topic will be a review of an individual, event, or culture within the period and setting of the course. The paper should be no less than eight (8) pages and no more than twelve (12) pages of text (excluding the title page, etc.) and is due not later than indicated in the schedule below. The grade for the paper will be calculated based on the Calvary University evaluation sheet (enclosed). The paper should cite a minimum of scholarly references using books or peer reviewed articles (including articles sourced from databases such as ProQuest). Internet references may also be used (but may not substitute for the three references required). Students who use the Clark Academic Center (CAC) to review a draft of their paper and provide a copy of the draft signed by a CAC tutor will receive a 5% bonus on the paper.
- C. Tests. Two (2) tests will be given. The first exam will be conducted at approximately the fourth week, the second test will be the final examination. The exams will be posted on the course Canvas page, and you will be able to access and take the exams over a period of approximately one week. Tests will include true-false, multiple choice, matching, and fill-in questions. Extra credit questions will generally be essay.
- D. Book Report. You will read Mark Noll's Turning Points: Decisive Moments in the History of Christianity and write an eight page book report due as indicated in Canvas. The book report will be organized as follows:
 - a. Introduction
 - b. Summary of the book (what did Noll cover in his book)

- c. Major themes (what point[s] is Noll trying to make?) that you identified during your reading
- d. Your assessment of Noll's themes (do you agree with him, why or why not)
- e. Conclusion

E. Lectures and Discussion Questions. You will watch the lecture (online students) and answer discussions questions normally associated with each course lecture. You will comment on at least one classmate's post. Discussion questions are normally due to be completed within one week of posting.

IV. METHODS

- A. Conduct of the class will include a combination of lecture, discussion and question / answer. Student interaction during the conduct of each class session is strongly encouraged.
- B. Grading and Attendance. I expect students to attend class regularly. My attendance policies are:

For in-class students, you may miss up to the equivalent of one week of class without penalty. If you miss more than one week, your grade will be lowered by one letter grade. If you miss more than two weeks of class, your grade will be lowered by one additional letter grade (a total of two letter grades).

For distance students, I will take attendance once a week on Wednesday. Attendance is based on academic activity, which includes responding to discussion questions, submitting research papers, book reports or similar assignments, or taking an examination. The same rule regarding grade reduction indicated above applies for distance delivery students.

In computing the final grade, I will weigh the work of the course in the following proportions:

First Examination	20%
Second Examination	20%
Discussion Questions	20%
Paper	15%
Book Report	15%
Textbook Reading	10%
