DESCRIPTION

A course designed to train the student in the application of group dynamics and leadership training used in enlisting, training, and supervising staff and volunteers in local church ministries. Included are studies in organization, human relations, management, and counseling.

This is a blended class, meaning that both campus and online students take this class together. Campus students attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. All interaction and assignments for campus and online students are done in the online classroom.*

OBJECTIVES

A. General competencies to be achieved. The student will:

1. Acquire an understanding of the biblical basis for leadership and administration. (PLO 1, 2) (Assignments A & B)
2. Develop a greater understanding of leadership roles and responsibilities. (PLO 2,3,4) (Assignments A & C)
3. Begin to develop a personal philosophy of leadership and administration. (PLO 2, 4)(Assignments A, B,C, D)

Our Mission: "prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to the Biblical worldview"

B. Specific competencies to be achieved. The student will:

1. Prepare a detailed job description for his or her role in a class organization. (PLO 2, 5) (Assignment D1)
2. Gain experience in solving organizational problems by applying principles of organization and administration. (PLO 3, 4, 5) (Assignment D)
3. Acquire a knowledge of the qualifications and qualities of an effective leader. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (Assignments A & C)

REQUIREMENTS (Late assignments are penalized one letter grade.)

A. Reading/Reporting (35%)

Read 1200 pages of “Administrative Process” material (the textbooks may be used for this reading). Take notes from your reading and record your sources in your reading reports. Turn in a typed single spaced one page reading report each day of class (240 pages of reading for each report). In your report, tell what books were read, tell how many pages were read from each source, and list some principles and ideas which may be helpful in your future life and ministry. These reading reports should be done in conjunction with the class schedule topics and in areas of special interest to you. One report is due each class session.

B. A Christian Philosophy of Leadership and Administration (10%)

A typewritten paper containing at least 6 pages, with 5 sources, addressing various aspects of leadership and administration from a biblical and practical perspective. Due July 26

C. Interviews (10%)

Interview four Christian leaders. Ask them to identify three administrative process problems that leaders frequently encounter. Ask them for advice regarding what you can do to prepare yourself to be an effective Christian leader. The results of these interviews must be reported, summarized, and interpreted in a typewritten report. Include a paragraph telling what you learned from doing these four interviews? Due July 26

D. Type a one page detailed job description for the leadership position that you wish to fill in our in-class organization. (5%) Due July 26

E. Administrative Process Class Project (25%)

Each student will participate in the administrative processes of an organization that will be formed during the class sessions. At the end of the week, submit a typewritten report discussing your involvement in the following seven activities:

Due July 31

1. Writing a detailed job description for your leadership position in the class organization.
2. Developing group plans within the class organization.
3. Planning and conducting an organizational meeting.
4. Initiating group action.
5. Identifying areas that needed adjustments and telling what corrective actions were taken.
6. Your involvement in other student's projects.
7. A completed "Role Identification Form" (Rush, pg. 62).

F. Final Exam (15%). Due July 31

METHODS

Lecture, question and answer, discussion, role play, group work, research, and reports are utilized in this course.

Grading:

Reading/Reporting	35%
Assignments B, C, D, E	50%
Final Exam	15%

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance in this course during the class sessions is required. Online students will attend class sessions through zoom or teams. Class videos are uploaded to "canvas" and can be found under the heading "pages". If you miss a class session, your course grade will be lowered one letter grade for each class session missed. Arriving late to class or leaving early will count as a "tardy". Four times tardy equals one absence.

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following translations: New American Standard (NASB), English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrase and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own. If you use or copy from a published work without giving the author credit, plagiarism has occurred.

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2015 update.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams, and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
