III. REQUIREMENTS

- A. Each student should arrange lesson times with instructor.
- B. Piano students attend once-a-week lessons* and should practice a minimum of one hour per day for five days a week. Practice must be recorded on the Practice Record Sheet provided. Weekly practice grades will be as follows: (5 hours = A, 4 hours = B, 3 hours = C, 2 hours = D)
- C. Each student should bring a 1” notebook to each lesson to keep track of assignments and worksheets.
- D. Practice and become proficient in playing assigned scales and technique exercises. Complete a satisfactory performance of the assigned scales and technique exercises at the last lesson of the semester.
- E. Attend all piano master classes and all general recitals each semester of study.*
- F. Perform assigned repertoire pieces at the last lesson. Repertoire pieces are to be polished and sound ready to be played in “public.”

IV. GRADING

The final grade will be constructed according to the following percentages:

Practice Effort	20%
Master Class Attendance	10%
Recital Attendance	10%
Consistent Achievement of skills	40%
Demonstrated in each lesson
Final Performance Exam	20%
Total	100%

*No more than two absences from lessons should occur. A third absence will result in the lowering of the student’s grade by one letter. A fourth absence will result in a grade of “F” for the semester. Please notify the instructor via e-mail or voicemail if an absence becomes necessary.

V. MATERIALS

Student is responsible to purchase literature. Students have a maximum of two weeks after the first lesson to obtain music needed for the semester. Failure to do so will result in the weekly grade to drop one grade level for the first week, 2 grade levels for the 2nd week and after 3 weeks with no literature, the student will receive an F for the weekly grade until music is purchased.

- The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB), English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

MUKP Keyboard Proficiency

- Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.
- Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own.
- The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
