POLICIES

Attendance Policy: Day Classes

A great story is about someone who wants something so badly they overcome conflict and obstacles to get it! You're here to get an education, right? There are so many obstacles to getting an education - money, time, the draw of relationships, cars that only work when it's over fifty degrees, coming down with chicken pox, ad infinitum! Just don't let attendance be the obstacle that gets you!

Theatre and creativity are hands-on activities; your presence in class is important. Theatre classes need you as much as you need them! The trust and dynamic necessary to creating good theatre doesn't happen in a vacuum. These courses are hands-on, minds and bodies engaged, full steam ahead!

- ❖ Calvary University has no official attendance policy. Students are responsible to the class instructor for work missed during an absence for any cause. When classes are missed due to official school sponsored events or functions the sponsoring faculty should submit a list of affected students to the Academic Office who will then make the list available to all instructors to verify excused absences.
- ❖ Class Withdrawal: in no case is the cessation of class attendance taken as an intent to withdraw from or drop a course. In order to officially withdraw from a class, the student must notify the Registrar's Office. (Please see the Refund Policy in the Finances section of this catalog for information about withdrawing from a class.)

Written Assignments are due via email by midnight of the date assigned, but preferably by class time. Papers and reading assignments must be completed on time. Work not completed on time will be graded down accordingly. A paper or written assignment will go down one full grade for every week that it is late. After that time, it will receive no credit. Illness or a registrar-granted leave of absence are the only acceptable exceptions.

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.

The research paper must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update.
