IV. METHODS

A. Presentation:

1. In-class methods: listening to lectures, participating in class discussions, research, writing, and making presentations.

About Class Attendance: Research consistently demonstrates that class attendance and active participation correlate to higher performance on course assessments.

About Classroom Use of Media:

-Computing devices are permitted during the lecture and class discussion sessions for the sole purpose of taking notes. Use of these devices to access the Internet, make telephone calls or video calls, text messaging, updating social network services, etc. is not allowed, let alone very distracting to other students.

-Cellphones / smartphones may only be used in an emergency, and in those situations the student may take the call but must leave the room and not return until the next break out of courtesy to fellow classmates.

About Note Taking: Students are expected to take notes during each class. Significant peer reviewed studies continue to demonstrate that notes taken by hand are understood better and remembered longer than those taken with a computer. Computer use which is a distraction to others (i.e., noise, blocking the screen, displaying non-class related material, etc.) is not allowed.

2. Out-of-class methods: observation, evaluation, and sermon preparation.

About written assignments: Unless directed otherwise, all written assignments must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update.

B. Grading:

About Late Assignments: Assignments turned in late will be lowered 5% each class day it is late.

About Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or essay without identifying that source. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own without identifying the source. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade. (Note: Turn-It-In.com will be used to verify plagiarism.)

About course grade: See the grading scale in the University Catalog for specific grading scale that will be used for final course grade.

V. MATERIALS

A. Required:

1. English Bible (NAS, NASB-U, NKJV, NET, ESV, or other by approval).

-The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
