VI. Policies

- A. The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
- B. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update.
- C. Late Assignments: Assignments will be lowered 10% if not turned in on the due date.
- D. Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade.
- E. Disabilities: Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.
- F. The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu) is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.

G. Class Attendance:

- All students are required to attend all scheduled classes.
- Each student is allowed one "Personal Day." After one personal day, each day missed will result in a full letter grade drop off the final grade for the class.
- If you are at a school function those absences are excused.
- Any appeal of the attendance policy MUST BEGIN with the instructor prior to going to the ACC (Matt. 18:15).
- Blended students: You must watch the video for each class and write a summary of each class watched. Submit the summaries to the instructor for each week in the following Monday. This is how attendance is counted for blended students.
