I. DESCRIPTION

A course designed to study the symptoms and underlying personal and interpersonal dynamics of the major categories of dysfunction as found in the DSM manual. Special attention is given to providing an understanding of these disorders according to a Christian worldview. (Prerequisite: CO601, CO603, CO610, and CO611)

This course uses a blended model of delivery, meaning that both campus and online students take this class together. Campus students attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. All interaction and assignments for campus and online students are done in Canvas. Students wishing to pursue state licensing in the State of Missouri must take the class in person.

II. OBJECTIVES

A. General competencies to be achieved.

1. The student will develop a broad understanding of psychopathology. (PLO 2, 3, 5)
2. The student will develop a deeper understanding of the origins and treatment of psychopathology in light of a Christian Worldview and Scripture. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 5)
3. The student will be exposed to different modalities and treatment options. (PLO 2, 3, 5)
4. The student will be able to dialogue with other professionals and third-party payers. (PLO 2, 3, 5)

B. Specific competencies to be achieved.

1. The student will develop a deeper understanding of how to practice self-care for personal wellness. (PLO 1, 4)
2. The student will become proficient with the diagnostic system of the DSM-5. (PLO, 2, 3, 5)

2. A case study will be provided in class. The student must write a 4-page paper that determines the key issues presented, provides diagnostic impressions based upon the DSM-5, and includes treatment recommendations that support a collaborative effort and include a bio/psycho/social/spiritual approach. The case study must include at least 4 scholarly sources in addition to referencing the course textbooks and the Bible. Due June 11th. (10%). (GC 1, 2, 3, 4; SC 2)
3. Write a 10-page research paper according to the guidelines below. Due June 18th. (20%) (GC 1, 2, 3, 4; SC 2)
 - a. Select a diagnosis from the DSM-5 (ask professor for approval before you start working on your paper).
 - b. Use at least 6 scholarly, preferably peer reviewed, sources (books and/or journal articles) besides the textbooks and the Bible.
 - c. Include the following areas:
 - i. A succinct overview of the chosen disorder in the DSM-5 category (do not copy and paste from the DSM-5 – this information must be evaluated and reworded into your own words):
 - ii. Potential causes of the disorder (genetics, heredity, social, cultural environment, behavior, etc.).
 - iii. Discuss how this disorder is viewed through a Christian worldview.
 - iv. Possible treatment interventions to help someone struggling with this disorder.
4. Write a 5-page reflection paper answering the following questions. Due June 25th (10%). (GC, 1, 2, 3, 4; SC 1, 2). This paper does not require APA format.
 - a. In what ways have you been personally impacted by one or more diagnosis from the DSM-5?
 - b. In what ways has your family been impacted by one or more diagnosis from the DSM-5?
 - c. How is mental illness a family problem?
 - d. How have you experienced the church being either helpful or unhelpful when you have struggled? (Do not overthink defining the church.)
 - e. Do any of the treatment options discussed in this class help you maintain personal wellness?

D. Interview (30%)

The student will conduct an interview with a Christian LPC (Licensed Professional Counselor) and write a summary of the interview: (GC 1, 2, 3, 4; SC 1, 2) Due July 2nd

The student will ask the following questions:

1. How does a Christian worldview affect your treatment of mental illness?
2. In your opinion, how are sin and psychopathology related?
3. Have you found any diagnosis in the DSM-5 challenging to interact with? If so explain.
4. How have you seen the church interact with issues of mental health (both in a positive and unhelpful way)?

The summary will include: (1) a short biography on the professional, (2) a history of his or her specific professional context (probably place of employment), (3) The three questions and responses. These summaries do not require APA format.

V. Additional Information

Bible

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

Writing Style

All class papers must follow the APA according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 7th edition.

Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

Learning Center

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
