III. REQUIREMENTS

- A. Reading Assignments and Quizzes: Weekly reading assignments are due from, The “A” Game: Nine Steps to Better Grades. by Kenneth Sufka. Reading quizzes will hold students accountable to reading. The quizzes are open book/open notes. (SLO 1,2,3,4)
- B. ABHE and College board Exams: These entrance exams are required by the university. For our class purposes students will receive a pass/fail grade.
- C. Planner Assignment: To assist the student in developing his/her study and time management habits, each student will use his/her syllabi to break down projects and assignments into steps and enter each step in a calendar template. (SLO1,2,4)
- D. VARK Scores: The VARK Learning Styles assessment test will be provided online. Students will record their scores and write a reflection. (SLO 1,2,4)
- E. Time Usage Report: Each student will record the use of his/her time usage for one week. The student will turn in the usage report along with a reflection. (SLO 1,2,4)
- F. Note-Taking Experiment: Students will take notes for 3 separate lectures in at least three different styles. The lectures will be online and will be assigned by the professor. The professor will announce in class what lectures will be used. (SLO1,2,3,4)
- G. Library/CAC assignment: Students will visit the Calvary library and participate in a visit to the CAC. More details will be announced in class. (SLO 1,2,3,4)
- H. Budget: Students will construct a monthly budget based off their actual income and expenses. Use the provided template for this assignment. (SLO 1,3,4)
- I. Emotional Intelligence Exercise: Students will write a reflection after the lecture (SLO 1,2,4)
- J. College Life Reflection Paper: In a 2–3-page, double-spaced paper (Times New Roman, 12-point font), with cover page, and bibliography, the student will describe at least three challenges he/she faces as a college student at Calvary University. The student will then describe how they will overcome these challenges using strategies from the book and course notes. (SLO 1,2,3,4)

IV. METHODS

- A. In-class methods include lectures, discussion, and group activities. Assignments and quizzes will only be accepted when submitted through Canvas. Specific details for each assignment are located on Canvas.
- B. No late work is accepted. The assignments are due by CLASS TIME on the assigned date. Canvas will have a “close date” and assignments will be considered as “incomplete” if not submitted by the due date. You are responsible to submit assignments online to the instructor whether you are in class that day or not. This includes, but is not limited to illness, sports team travel, etc. Contact the professor ahead of time or as soon as possible if an extension is needed.

- C. The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all CU students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
- D. Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.
- E. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update. The Turabian Handbook is located on the Calvary University website.
- F. Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own.
