I. DESCRIPTION

Ministry Methods I is designed to provide the student opportunity for practical hands-on training through a ministry partner of Calvary University. MS361 lays a foundation for the future Methods coursework by introducing the student to their agency's specifics and covering such topics as ministry identity, personal growth and development, and specifics of the ministry field. (Requirements: Permission of the Synergy Director.)

II. OBJECTIVES

A. General competencies to be achieved:

1. Provide the student with both academic and hands on training through ministry practitioners. (PLO 1, 4, 5) (A 2, 3, 4, 5)
2. Determine a student's compatibility and suitability for ministry. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 1, 3, 4)
3. Develop and exercise sufficient aptitude for ministry. (PLO 4, 5) (A 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)
4. Combine training and preparedness aspects such that students may engage in ministry sooner. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 3, 4)
5. Cultivate a greater passion for ministry through local church ministry exposure (PLO 5) (A 3, 4)
6. Foster a relationship with organizations working in the students chosen field. (PLO 5) (A 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

B. Specific competencies to be achieved:

1. Formulate a training program with an approved agency that will carry the student through their education, ministry training and to their chosen field. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 1, 4)
2. Introduce the student to this particular agency and its unique ministry niche. (PLO 1, 5) (A 1, 3, 4, 5)
3. Prepare for ministry as a part of a team through team building exercises. (PLO 1, 4, 5) (A 1, 2)
4. Assess the student's readiness for ministry. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 3)
5. Introduce the student to cultural aspects unique to their chosen ministry field. (PLO 1, 4) (A 3, 4, 5)
6. Explore the student's gifts and necessary qualifications for ministry. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 1, 3, 4, 5)

III. REQUIREMENTS

A. Methods Coursework

1. The Methods courses are to be completed as a unit with the same organization. The student will select one of the approved organizations to complete their Methods coursework in conjunction with. To that end the student is encouraged to begin planning for their Methods track no later than the fall semester of their sophomore year.
2. Methods coursework should build on knowledge attained through general and core courses as well as each other. Each Methods course is intended to build on the course before it.
3. Once a student is ready for their methods course they will meet with both the MS Program Director and their Methods Supervisor to discuss the details of the Methods coursework unique to their particular organization as well as standard requirements across every organization.

B. Methods Requirements

1. Obtain a copy of Methods I Syllabus.
  - a. This syllabus is designed to acquaint the student, the Methods Supervisor, and the MS Program Director with basic information about the coursework.

- b. The Methods coursework is a requirement for the four-year degree and is considered extremely important and valuable in the total educational process.
    - c. The Methods involve working directly with an approved organization in their ministry training program as well as assignments turned in to the MS Program Director.
  2. Obtain a copy of the Methods Handbook
    - a. The Methods Handbook will acquaint the student with the necessary procedures specific to their chosen ministry organization.
    - b. Each ministry organization has unique requirements for completing their training and those requirements must be met and kept track of through the assignments listed in this syllabus. While the track is unique the topics covered and assignments completed are standard across each organization to ensure that students receive a comparable education.
  3. If required, raise the funds necessary to participate in the program.
  4. Complete all requirements: These requirements include: journals, interviews, assignments unique to the organization, attendance, good standing with the organization, papers and work submitted to the MS Program Director.
  5. Methods Responsibilities:
    - a. The student is responsible for:
      - i. Selecting which organization and Methods track they wish to complete. (A student may change their track after completing Methods I, however, Methods I will need to be repeated with the new organization and this could affect graduation dates.)
      - ii. Securing all required written material from the MS Program Director.
      - iii. Obtaining written approval from both the MS Program Director and the organization.
      - iv. Completing all assignments.
      - v. Meeting with the MS Program Director for the exit interview.
    - b. The Immediate Supervisor is to be:
      - i. A staff worker in the organization through which the Methods coursework is being done.

- ii. Willing to supervise the student and communicate progress to the MS Program Director.
- c. The MS Program Director is responsible for:
  - i. Giving approval and advice to the student about the Methods.
  - ii. Collecting and reviewing the student's and supervisor's documentation.
  - iii. Grading submitted assignments.
  - iv. Meeting with the student after the Methods has been completed to go over data, assess the effectiveness of the learning, and assign a grade.

6. Methods Commitment

- a. The student will:
  - i. Follow the direction and supervision of the supervisor.
  - ii. Demonstrate a high degree of diligence and faithfulness.
  - iii. Submit all required forms and information.
  - iv. Complete assignments in a timely manner.
- b. The immediate supervisor will:
  - i. Provide the student with the Methods program and accompanying requirements.
  - ii. Communicate to the MS Program Director as soon as possible any concerns or dissatisfaction with the student.
  - iii. The Methods course may be terminated by mutual consent or by the supervisor and/or ministry organization at any time. If this should be necessary, a meeting with the student and notification of the MS Program Director is required.

C. Methods Procedures

1. Seek approval from the MS Program Director AND the Immediate Supervisor
2. Complete the Methods Self-Evaluation
3. Submit all written assignments, reports, and evaluation forms

4. Have the supervisor submit the Supervisor's Evaluation to the MS Program Director
5. Make an appointment with the Ministry Studies Advisor for an exit interview
6. Remember
  - i. The Methods is not official until the Supervisor submits a tentative plan.
  - ii. All requirements listed in the course syllabus must be met no later than the required dates.
  - iii. Schedule a personal interview and evaluation with the MS Program Director as soon as you return to campus or as soon as you complete the requirements if the Methods was during the school year.
  - iv. The student should keep one copy of all reports, evaluations, and materials submitted to the MS Program Director.

D. Assignments

1. Reflective Journal
  - i. A personal ministry journal is required. This journal is simply an account of the weekly activities, relationships, ministries, and exposures as well as lessons learned, areas that indicate where God blessed and areas where you need to improve. This may be done in the form of a blog.
  - ii. The Journal is to be turned in one week prior to the end of the term.
2. Team Building Paper
  - i. Team building and aspects of teamwork are covered by each agency in Methods I. This assignment has two parts.
  - ii. The student will read The Five Dysfunctions of a Team by Patrick Lencioni.
  - iii. The student will then write a 5-page paper in which they compare lessons learned through the reading and lessons learned from the agency. What is the most valuable lesson learned? How will you apply these principles on the ministry field? What benefits and what dangers are inherent with team-based ministry?
3. Assessment of Readiness for Ministry

- i. The student will write a 5-page paper in which they evaluate their preparedness for ministry based on surveys and learning done through the agency.
- ii. This assessment is to be completed and turned in prior to beginning on the Personal Growth and Development Plan.

4. Personal Growth and Development Plan

- i. A key part of Methods I is understanding the student's need to be a good spiritual steward.
- ii. Through interaction and learning with the agency as well as the student's personal reflection the student is to write a 10 page personal plan for ongoing spiritual and professional growth. This plan should cover the following time periods.
  1. Now until graduation
  2. Graduation to placement
  3. Placement to first 5 years of ministry
- iii. The student should note the following in their plan.
  1. What are their plans for ongoing spiritual growth?
  2. How will they continue to develop professionally for vocational ministry?
  3. What support does the agency provide in this area?
  4. What areas of struggle will the student encounter and how can he/she be proactive in dealing with them now?
  5. What current struggles need to be dealt with?

5. Agency Specific Assignments

- i. The student provide the MS Program Director copies of work assigned by the agency. This will be included in their assessment for the course.
- ii. All work should be submitted through Canvas.

IV. METHODS

A. Assessment: All work submitted constitutes the background and basis for assessment.

B. In-class Methods: Students are expected to meet all obligations of the - organization they are doing Methods program through. Obligations are organization specific and can be found in the Methods Handbook. Any assignments completed for the organization must be passed on to the MS Program Director through Canvas or other means.

- C. Out-of-class Methods: The student will seek training with one of the approved organizations. The student is expected to participate in all activities relevant to their training. This participation will be tracked as a means of attendance. Methods could include off-campus class time, field work, tests, papers, etc.
- D. Grading: Grades are based on the student's overall performance in the organization's training as well as work submitted to the MS Program Director. Any grades assigned by the organization will be considered in the grade given for the practicum course.
- a. Organizational grade 20%
  - b. Completed assignments 20%
  - c. Daily Journal 10%
  - d. Self-Evaluation 15%
  - e. Supervisor Evaluation 15%
  - f. Professor Interview 20%
- E. The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
- F. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition. Unless otherwise indicated book reports and study questions may be in non-research format, interviews and other research papers should be in research paper format. A copy of the Turabian Style Guide is available on the Clark Academic Center page of Calvary's website.
- G. Late Assignments: Assignments will be lowered 15% if not turned on in on the due date.

- H. Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade. Students should note that papers will be submitted in Canvas via "Turn-It-In". This program automatically gives the students work a plagiarism score, students should strive for a score less than 20.
- I. Disabilities: Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.
- J. The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all CU students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.

V. MATERIALS: To be arranged with the Student and Immediate Supervisor.
