5. Cultivate a greater passion for intercultural ministries through missions exposure (PLO 5) (A 4, 5)
6. Foster a relationship with organizations working in the students chosen field. (PLO 5) (A 1, 2, 4, 5)

B. Specific competencies to be achieved:

1. Build on previous learning and relationships from Methods III and tie in all learning from the Methods coursework. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)
2. Formulate a plan for ongoing support development both prior to departure and after arrival on the field. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 1, 2, 4)
3. Re-assess the student's readiness for cross-cultural ministry. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)
4. Evaluate field specific skills and develop an ongoing training plan. (PLO 5) (A 2, 4)
5. Develop a procedure for overcoming and health and welfare concerns and maintain proper health on the field. (PLO 1, 2, 5) (A 3)
6. Examine the student's relationship with the agency in preparation for field departure. (PLO 1, 2, 5) (A 1, 2, 5)

Our Mission: "...to prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to the Biblical worldview."

III. REQUIREMENTS

A. Methods Coursework

1. The Methods courses are to be completed as a unit with the same mission organization. The student will select one of the approved mission organizations to complete their methods coursework in conjunction with. To that end the student is encouraged to begin planning for their methods track no later than the fall semester of their sophomore year.
2. Methods coursework should build on knowledge attained through general and core courses as well as each other. Each methods course is intended to build on the course before it.
3. Once a student is ready for their methods course they will meet with both the Intercultural Studies Program Director and their Methods Supervisor to discuss the details of the Methods coursework unique to their particular mission organization as well as standard requirements across every organization.

B. Methods Requirements

1. Obtain a copy of Intercultural Methods Syllabus.
  - a. This syllabus is designed to acquaint the student, the methods supervisor, and the program director with basic information about the coursework.
  - b. The methods coursework is a requirement for the four-year degree and is considered extremely important and valuable in the total educational process.
  - c. The methods involves working directly with an approved mission organization in their ministry training program as well as assignments turned in to the IC Program Director.
2. Obtain a copy of the Methods Handbook
  - a. The Methods Handbook will acquaint the student with the necessary procedures specific to their chosen mission organization.
  - b. Each mission organization has unique requirements for completing their training and those requirements must be met and kept track of through the assignments listed in this syllabus. While the track is unique the topics covered and assignments completed are standard across each organization to ensure that students receive a comparable education.
3. Raise the funds necessary to participate in the program – if required
4. Complete all requirements: These requirements include: journals, interviews, assignments unique to the organization, attendance, good standing with the organization, papers and work submitted to the IC Program Director.

5. Methods Responsibilities:

- a. The student is responsible for:
  - i. Selecting which organization and methods track they wish to complete. (A student may change their track after completing Methods I, however, Methods I will need to be repeated with the new organization and this could affect graduation dates)
  - ii. Securing all required written material from the Intercultural Studies Program Director
  - iii. Obtaining written approval from both the IC Program Director and the organization.
  - iv. Completing all assignments
  - v. Meeting with the Intercultural Studies Program Director for the exit interview.
- b. The Immediate Supervisor is to be:
  - i. A staff worker in the organization through which the methods coursework is being done.
  - ii. Willing to supervise the student and communicate progress to the Intercultural Studies Program Director.
- c. The Intercultural Studies Program Director is responsible for:
  - i. Giving approval and advice to the student about the methods.
  - ii. Collecting and reviewing the student's and supervisor's documentation.
  - iii. Grading submitted assignments.
  - iv. Meeting with the student after the methods has been completed to go over data, assess the effectiveness of the learning, and assign a grade.

6. Methods Commitment

- a. The student will:
  - i. Give himself/herself wholly to the direction and supervision of the supervisor.
  - ii. Demonstrate a high degree of diligence and faithfulness.
  - iii. Be responsible to submit all required forms and information.
  - iv. Complete assignments in a timely manner.
- b. The immediate supervisor will:
  - i. Provide the student with the methods program and accompanying requirements.
  - ii. Communicate to the Intercultural Studies Program Director as soon as possible any concerns or dissatisfaction with the student.
  - iii. The methods course may be terminated by mutual consent or by the supervisor and/or mission organization at any time. If this should be necessary, a meeting with the student and notification of the Intercultural Studies Program Director is required.

C. Methods Procedures

1. Seek approval from the Intercultural Studies Advisor AND the Immediate Supervisor.
2. Complete the Methods Self-Evaluation
3. Submit all written assignments, reports, and evaluation forms.
4. Have the supervisor submit the Supervisor's Evaluation to the Intercultural Studies Program Director.
5. Make an appointment with the Intercultural Studies Advisor for an exit interview.
6. Remember
  - i. The methods is not official until the Supervisor submits a tentative plan.
  - ii. All requirements listed in the course syllabus are met no later than the required dates.
  - iii. Schedule a personal interview and evaluation with the Intercultural Studies Program Director as soon as you return to campus or as soon as you complete the requirements if the methods was during the school year.
  - iv. The student should keep one copy of all reports, evaluations, and materials submitted to the Intercultural Studies Program Director.

D. Assignments

1. Reflective Journal
  - i. A personal ministry journal is required. This journal is simply an account of the daily activities, relationships, ministries, and exposures as well as lessons learned, areas that indicate where God blessed and areas where you need to improve. This may be done in the form of a blog.
  - ii. The Journal is to be turned in two weeks prior to the end of the term.
2. Worker-agency relationship
  - i. The student will write a 5 page paper in which the detail their current relationship with the mission agency prior to field departure.
    1. Detail the agencies policies and procedures related to field workers.
    2. Describe their current relationship with the agency, are there areas of concern, anything that needs to be worked on?
    3. Are there communication barriers between the worker and agency, develop a plan for how these can be resolved and a good working relationship maintained.
3. Health and Welfare review
  - i. The student will write a 5 page paper in which they will detail the agencies policies and practices related to health care and the welfare of its members.

- ii. The goal of this assignment is not to critique the agency but to ensure that the student understands the resources available to them.
  - iii. Include other support structures that are in place for the agency to care for its members, such as ongoing education, MK care, emergency situations, and retirement.
4. Culminating paper
- i. The student will write a 20 page (minimum) paper in which they describe the culmination of their Methods experience.
  - ii. This paper should tie-in all coursework covered over all four Methods courses. Review all previously submitted assignments and cover the following topics in this paper.
    - 1. Field Readiness
    - 2. Cross- Cultural Evangelism and Discipleship
    - 3. Team Building
    - 4. Personal Growth and Development
    - 5. Cultural Preparedness and Demographics
    - 6. Security and Crises Prevention
    - 7. Personal Support Development
    - 8. On-going training
5. Agency Specific Assignments
- i. The student is to also turn in to the professor any work that is assigned by the agency itself. This will be included in their assessment for the course.

***** All work should be submitted through Canvas.

IV. METHODS

- A. Assessment: All work submitted constitutes the background and basis for assessment.
- B. In-class Methods: Students are expected to meet all obligations of the organization they are doing their methods program through. Obligations are organization specific and can be found in the Methods Handbook. Any assignments completed for the organization must be passed on to the IC Program Director through Canvas or other means.
- C. Out-of-class Methods: The student will seek training with one of the approved missions organizations. The student is expected to participate in all activities relevant to their training, this participation will be tracked as a means of attendance. Methods could include off-campus class time, field work, tests, papers, etc...

- D. Grading: Grades are based on the student's overall performance in the organizations training as well as work submitted to the IC Program Director. Any grades assigned by the organization will be considered in the grade given for the practicum course.
- a. Organizational grade 20%
  - b. Completed assignments 20%
  - c. Daily Journal 10%
  - d. Self-Evaluation 15%
  - e. Supervisor Evaluation 15%
  - f. Professor Interview 20%
- E. The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
- F. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update. Unless otherwise indicated book reports and study questions may be in non-research format, interviews and other research papers should be in research paper format. A copy of the Turabian Style Guide is available on the Clark Academic Center page of Calvary's website.
- G. Late Assignments: Assignments will be lowered 15% if not turned in on the due date.
- H. Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade. Students should note that papers will be submitted in Canvas via "Turn-It-In". This program automatically gives the students work a plagiarism score, students should strive for a score less than 20.
- I. Disabilities: Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.
- J. The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all CU students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
- V. MATERIALS: To be arranged with the Student and Immediate Supervisor
- The Bible (Instructor will use ESV)
