- The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

- Architects scale ruler & a drafting compass

VI. POLICIES

- Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.
- Plagiarism is defined as copying any information without proper citation, including taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own. Assignments including plagiarized information will not be assigned any points, and further disciplinary action is possible.
- The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all Calvary students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams, and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.

- Class attendance is expected. You may miss one class period without consequence. For each additional class period missed without approval from the professor you will lose one letter grade. Exceptions can be made if needed, but please talk to the professor. A death of an immediate family member is valid reason to miss class, too tired because you stayed up late writing a paper is not.
