I. DESCRIPTION

This course comprises an examination on the United States and Missouri constitutions and related material. This course meets testing requirements (RSMO 170.011.1) in the Constitution of the United States and of the state of Missouri and in American history and institutions.

II. OBJECTIVES

- A. The purpose of this course is to prepare you to pass an examination on the provisions and principles of the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Missouri, and in American history and American institutions. Accordingly, upon completion of this course, you will be able to:
1. Identify structure and contents of the Missouri State Constitution.
  2. Identify institutions associated with the Missouri State Constitution.
  3. Identify structure and contents of the US Constitution.
  4. Identify institutions associated with the US Government as established within the US Constitution.

III. REQUIREMENTS.

- A. Missouri State Constitution. You will be required to take and pass an examination on the Missouri State Constitution and associated institutions.
- B. US Constitution. You will be required to take and pass an examination on the US Constitution and associated institutions.

IV. METHODS

- A. This is an online only course. You are expected to use the study material provided in the Canvas portal to prepare for the Missouri State and US Constitution examinations and to take the associated examinations when they open within the Canvas portal.

B. Grading and Attendance.

Attendance: This course does not include an attendance requirement. It is a self-paced, zero credit course required for completion of your degree.

Grading: This is a pass-fail course. You are required to obtain a 60% on each of the two examinations to pass this course.

V. TEXTBOOKS

Constitution of the United States of America

Constitution of the State of Missouri, Revised January 2019.

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
