III. REQUIREMENTS (ASSESSMENTS)

- A. Reading and Questions. You will be expected to complete the assigned reading from the text. As you read the assignments, pay attention to the general threads of history, and how specific individuals and events fit within the patterns of these movements. You will answer questions associated with the reading for each chapter in the book. Questions are contained within the online course materials.
- B. Tests. You will complete a mid-term and a final exam.
- C. Forums. You will answer forum questions and participate in forum discussions as you work through the course units.
- D. Book Report. You will write an eight page book report on The Making of a Warrior by Harry Waterhouse, III. The book report will consist of a summary of the book, major themes you identified, your assessment of those themes, and a conclusion. The book report will be organized as follows:
 - a. Introduction
 - b. Summary of the book (what did Waterhouse cover in his book)
 - c. Major themes (what point[s] is Waterhouse trying to make?) that you identified during your reading
 - d. Your assessment of Waterhouse's themes (do you agree with him, why or why not)
 - e. Conclusion
- A. Paper. You will be required to prepare a research paper. Topic will be a review of an individual, event, or culture within the period and setting of the course. The paper should be no less than eight (8) pages and no more than twelve (12) pages of text (excluding the title page, etc.) and is due not later than indicated in the schedule below. The grade for the paper will be calculated based on the rubric included in the Canvas portal for this class. The paper must include three scholarly references. Internet references may also be used (but not popular citations, blogs or Wikipedia). Students who use the Clark Academic Center (CAC) to review a draft of their paper and provide a copy of the draft signed by a CAC tutor will receive a 5% bonus on the paper. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 9th edition.

IV. METHODS

- A. This an online class. The class will be composed of reading, answering questions, engaging in forum responses, and providing writing reflections of each portion of the course.
- B. Grading and Attendance.

For online students, I will take attendance once a week on Wednesday. Attendance is based on academic activity, which includes responding to discussion questions, submitting research papers, book reports or similar assignments, or taking an examination. You may miss up the equivalent of one week of class without penalty. If you miss more than one week, your grade will be lowered by one letter grade. If you miss more than two weeks of class, your grade will be lowered by one additional letter grade (a total of two letter grades).

The grading scale is provided in the University Catalog (letter grades with numerical equivalents). In computing the final grade, I will weigh the work of the course in the following proportions:

Discussion Questions	20%
Answers to Chapter Questions	30%
Mid-Term Exam	10%
Final Exam	10%
Research Paper	20%
Book Report	10%

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
