I. DESCRIPTION

This course will help the student learn the inductive method of Bible study following the steps of observation, interpretation, application, and correlation. Students will learn how to use the literal grammatical historical hermeneutic to interpret the Bible. Students will be introduced to traditional dispensationalism which distinguishes Israel and the Church.

 This course is offered in two formats: in-person and online. Students registered for in-person attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. For both in-person and online students, assignments and interaction outside of the class period are done in the learning management system.*

II. OBJECTIVES

A. General competencies to be achieved:

1. Discover a new appreciation for the wonder and precision of God's Word (PLO 1,5) (A 1,2,3,4,5,6,7, 8, 9, 10)
2. Develop a competence in interpretation of Scripture that will enhance a lifetime of service to our Lord (PLO 1, 5) (A 1,2,3,4,5,7, 8, 9, 10)
3. Discern the complexities involved in correctly interpreting Scripture from a Biblical Hermeneutic (PLO 1, 4) (A1,2,3,4,5,6,7)
4. Determine the indispensable nature of inductive Bible study for faith and practice, for life and ministry (PLO 1,2,3,4,5) (A 1,2,3,4,5,6,7, 8, 9, 10)
5. Demonstrate a knowledge of the distinction between hermeneutics and exegesis (PLO 1,2,5) (A 1)

Our Mission: To prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to the Biblical worldview

IV. Materials

A. The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

B. Textbooks

- a) Hendricks, Howard G. and William Hendricks. Living by the Book. Chicago: Moody Publishers, 2007, ISBN: 9780802408235 Retail: $18.99
- b) Zuck, Roy B. Basic Bible Interpretation. Wheaton, IL: Victor Books, 1991. ISBN: 0896938190. Retail: $26.99

V. Policies

All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update.

Late Assignments: Assignments will be lowered 10% if not turned in on the due date.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade.

Disabilities: Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu) is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service

Attendance:

Residential Students: I will record attendance by checking academic activity during the previous 7 days each Wednesday. If you miss more than one week, your grade will be lowered by one letter grade. If you miss more than two weeks of class, your grade will be lowered by one additional letter grade (a total of two letter grades).

Online students: Attendance for online students will consist of validated academic activity at a weekly minimum. Attendance validation for online students includes such activities as participation in class assignments and discussion typically derived from the recorded lectures.
