III. REQUIREMENTS

- A. Read textbooks, complete assignments on time, and participate in class discussion and activities.
- B. Exercises:
 - 1. The student will be assigned homework for the following class in the week. Exercises will all be posted and turned in through Canvas. All assignments are due before the next class. The assignments will follow the chapter being discussed for that week's material. More information during the class, depending on how far we get.
 - 2. Students are expected to show all work. Steps must not be left out, so the instructor is able to give partial credit if the final answer is wrong. Partial credit IS NOT given if the work is not clearly demonstrated.
- C. Exams: Students are expected to complete exams on scheduled dates. All exams are posted in Canvas and will be uploaded in canvas for grading.

IV. METHODS

- A. Classroom methods will include lecture and discussion.
- B. Grading
 - 1. Homework 75%
 - 2. Quizzes 15%
 - 3. Final Exam 10%

Remember that the goal for this class is not to make you an accountant. We are looking for the development of skill sets that will focus on critical thinking. Manager's use these skills when provided with accounting tool in problem solving within an organization.

THE BIBLE is a required textbook for every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own.

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu) is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
