Course: BT714 Advanced Theological Analysis II
Credit: 3 Semester Hours
Semester: Spring 2023 Cycle 6
Date: May 8 – June 30, 2023
Time: Tuesday 6:00 – 9:00 pm Central Time
Place: Microsoft Teams
Professor: Dr. David Mappes
Email: David.Mappes@calvary.edu

DESCRIPTION

In this course the student writes on specific advanced issues concerning Anthropology, Hamartiology, Christology, Soteriology and Pneumatology. The student will explain the significance of the church debates and doctrinal statements regarding these doctrines. The student will assess the theological differences and discuss the major arguments pro and con in the following debates: Calvinism vs. Arminianism; Free Grace vs. Lordship Salvation; Charismatic vs. Cessationism; and different views in the Historical Adam debate.

This course is offered in two formats: in-person and online. Students registered for in-person attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. For both in-person and online students, assignments and interaction outside of the class period are done in the learning management system.

- 7.Explain the theological differences in the debate regarding Calvinism and Arminianism

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB), English Standard Version (ESV), New King James Version (NKJV), or King James Version (KJV). Other translations like NLT and NIV may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have any questions about a particular translation or version.
