Dates:	May 6 – June 28, 2024
Time:	Mondays 6:00 – 9:00 pm Central Time
Place:	Microsoft Teams
Professor:	Dr. Jeremy Lyon

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is an introduction and synthetic overview of the Old Testament prophetic books: Isaiah through Malachi.

This course is offered in two formats: in-person and online. Students registered for in-person attend the classes in person. Online students attend the classes via the online classroom. For both in-person and online students, assignments and interaction outside of the class period are done in the learning management system.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

As a result of taking this course the student will:

1. Know the basic content of the Old Testament prophetic books (Isaiah-Malachi)
2. Be able to identify the key people, places, and events in Old Testament history
3. Identify the author, historical background, theme and purpose of these OT books: Isaiah-Malachi.
4. Find applications to his or her life through the reading of the OT books (Isaiah-Malachi)

COURSE TEXTBOOKS

The Bible: The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB), English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
