2. Understands civic ideas and democratic principles implicit in basic documents (human dignity and individual rights, justice, general welfare, freedom equality, rule of law, etc.). (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments A, B, C, D, E)
3. Understand how events today and in the past have been shaped by democratic ideals and by the American people's efforts to put those ideals into practice. (PLO 1) (Assessments A, B, E)
4. Knows a range of diverse primary sources, literature, and other media (local, national and international) to illustrate and explore citizenship in other times and places. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments A, C, D)

5. Understands the role and impact of citizen participation in civil society and in the political arena. (PLO 1, 3, 4) (Assessments A, B, D)
6. Understands different types of government and institutional systems, including those of the U.S., and how those systems interact. (PLO 1, 3, 4) (Assessments A, B, D, E)
7. Understands the effects of political theories and philosophies. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments A, B, E)
8. Understands the role and impact of citizen participation in civil society and in the political arena. (PLO 1, 3, 4) (Assessments A, B, E)
9. Understands rights and responsibilities, rules, types or authority, and governmental structures of schools, communities, states, the country, country and other nations. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments A, B, E)
10. For future educators – recognizes learners' developing sense of fairness and order, and uses this sense as an entry point to examining and analyzing rights and responsibilities, rules, types of authority and governmental structures of their schools and community. (PLO 1, 3, 4) (Assessments A, B, E)
11. Demonstrates mastery of elements of the Missouri State Constitution

III. REQUIREMENTS (ASSESSMENTS)

- A. Reading. You will be expected to complete the assigned reading. Readings from Bridges are not narrowly linked to specific reading sections in Wilson, but generally relate to multiple areas in the course. Consequently, you may read Bridges at your own pace.
- B. Examinations. Two (2) examinations will be given (including the final). Each exam will cover only material for that half of the course. The exams will be posted on the course Canvas page, and you will be able to access and take the exams over a period of approximately one week. Tests will be open book / open note and will include true-false, multiple choice, matching, fill-in questions. Extra credit questions will generally be essay.
- C. Paper. You will be required to prepare a research paper. Topic will be associated with American government. The paper should be no less than eight (8) pages and no more than twelve (12) pages of text (excluding the title page, etc.) and is due not later than indicated in the schedule below. The grade for the paper will be calculated based on the rubric included in the Canvas portal for this class. The paper must include three scholarly references. Internet references may also be used (but not popular citations, blogs or Wikipedia). Students who use the Clark Academic Center (CAC) to review a draft of their paper and provide a copy of the draft signed by a CAC tutor will receive a 5% bonus on the paper. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 9th edition.
- D. Book Report. You will write an eight-page book report on Thomas Sowell's Conflict of Visions: Ideological Origins of Political Struggle. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research

Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 9th edition. The book report will be organized as follows:

- a. Introduction
 - b. Summary of the book (what did Sowell cover in his book)
 - c. Major themes (what point[s] is Sowell trying to make?) that you identified during your reading
 - d. Your assessment of Sowell’s themes (do you agree with him, why or why not)
 - e. Conclusion
- E. Lectures and Discussion Questions. All students will answer discussion questions and participate in each discussion. After attending (or watching for online students) the lecture you will answer discussion questions normally associated with the lecture. You will comment on at least one classmate’s post. Discussion questions are normally due to be completed within one week of posting.

IV. METHODS

- A. Conduct of the class will include a combination of lecture, discussion and question / answer. Student interaction during the conduct of each class session is strongly encouraged.
- B. Grading and Attendance. Attendance accounts for 20% of your overall grade. I expect students to attend class regularly. My attendance policies are:

In class students: there are 16 class sessions in the cycle; each class session is worth 1.25% of your grade. I will deduct 1.25% from your grade for each unexcused absence.

For online students, I will take attendance once a week on Wednesday. Attendance is based on academic activity, which includes responding to discussion questions, submitting research papers, book reports or similar assignments, or taking an examination. I will deduct 2.50% from your grade for each week in which an online student fails to demonstrate academic activity.

In computing the final grade, I will weigh the work of the course in the following proportions:

First Examination	15%
Final Examination	15%
Discussion Questions	20%
Paper	15%
Book Report	15%
Attendance	20%

Thomas Sowell, Conflict of Visions: Ideological Origins of Political Struggles (Revised Edition), New York: Basic Books, 2007. ISBN 978-0465002054. Retail price is $23.33. Used copies may be available from booksellers for $18.00.

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person’s or AI entity’s ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. The use of AI generated content in student work is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu) is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
