

BT710 ADVANCED NEW TESTAMENT SYNTHESIS II (Romans Through Revelation)

Course:	BT710 Advanced New Testament Synthesis II
Credit:	3 Semester Hours
Semester:	Fall 2024 Session 1
Date:	August 19 – October 11, 2024
Time:	Tuesday 6:00 – 9:00 pm Central Time
Place:	Microsoft Teams
Professor:	Dr. Dan Fabricatore

DESCRIPTION

This course examines the historical backgrounds, arguments, biblical theology and interpretive issues of the epistles (Romans-Jude) and the book of Revelation. Students will do discourse analysis of the epistles and learn how they address specific theological and historical problems in the early church. Students will critique the idealist, historicist and preterist views of Revelation, and discover exegetical arguments for the futurist interpretation of the book of Revelation. Students will do exegetical studies in the Greek text of these New Testament books.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

General competencies to be achieved: The student will:

1. Explain the arguments of the following NT books: Romans, Ephesians, Hebrews and Revelation (PLO 2) (A 1-7)
2. Explain the various views on the authorship, recipients, date and place of writing of Romans through Revelation (PLO 3) (A 1-7)
3. Explain the chronology of the life of Paul and the time of writing of each of his epistles (PLO 2, 3) (A 1-7)
4. Identify the major interpretive problems for Romans through Revelation and give possible solutions to them (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 1-7)

Our Mission: "to prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to the Biblical worldview"

Specific competencies to be achieved: The student will

1. Identify the specific structural markers in the Greek text of the New Testament epistles (Romans through Jude) and the Book of Revelation and explain their significance (PLO 1) (A 7)
2. Critique the proposed purposes for each of the New Testament epistles and the book of Revelation (PLO 2, 3) (A 1-7)
3. Validate the correct interpretation of the New Testament epistles and the book of Revelation (PLO 3, 4) (A 1-7)

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB), English Standard Version (ESV), New King James Version (NKJV), or King James Version (KJV). Other translations like NLT and NIV may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have any questions about a particular translation or version.

POLICIES

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Academic Accommodations Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require accommodations.

Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person's or AI entity's ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. The use of AI generated content in student work is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated.

All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
