REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

Our Mission: To prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to the Biblical worldview

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB), English Standard Version (ESV), New King James Version (NKJV), or King James Version (KJV). Other translations like NLT and NIV may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have any questions about a particular translation or version.

REQUIRED: ORIGINAL LANGUAGE BIBLE STUDY SOFTWARE (Accordance, Bible Works, Logos)

Students are required to have digital resources to engage Biblical study in the original languages, including but not limited to Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (BHS), Nestle Aland 28 (NA28) – both including critical apparatus; Septuaginta (LXX), a Greek Lexicon of the New Testament and Other Early Christian Literature (BDAG) by Bauer, Danker, Arndt, and Gingrich; Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament (HALOT) by Koehler and Baumgartner.

HELP FOR STUDENTS

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Academic Accommodations Coordinator (accommodations@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all PhD students.

EXPECTATIONS OF ALL STUDENTS

Do not plagiarize. Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person's or AI entity's ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. The use of AI generated content in student work is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (F) grade and he or she will be reported to the Ph.D. director as well as the academic dean.

Use Turabian style for the dissertation. See A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition.
