IV. METHODS

- A. Assessment: All work submitted constitutes the background and basis for assessment.
- B. In-class Methods: There are no classroom expectations for this course, because the internship involves the student's ability to apply learning principles to real ministry obligations. However, students are expected to meet periodically and voluntarily with the professor for informational updates and reports.
- C. Out-of-class Methods: The student will seek personal experiences in a valid internship ministry, raise the funds to be involved, fulfill ministry expectations, conduct a self-evaluation, be observed and evaluated by a supervisor, and debrief with the Intercultural Studies Advisor.
- D. Grading: Grades are based on the student's investment of time and ministry, and the application of the internship (i.e. it is not a vacation from classes, a camping experience, or a sightseeing opportunity). Timeliness of reporting, quality of information included in reports, scholarly insight and thought expressed in journal entries, student self-assessment, the supervisor's candid evaluation, and personal interviews with the professor constitute the foundation for grade evaluation according to the following scale:
- | | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| a. Invested Hours | 20% |
| b. Daily Journal | 20% |
| c. Self-Evaluation | 20% |
| d. Supervisor Evaluation | 20% |
| e. Professor Interview | 20% |
- C. The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
- D. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition. Unless otherwise indicated book reports and study questions may be in non-research format, interviews and other research papers should be in research paper format. A copy of the Turabian Style Guide is available on the Clark Academic Center page of Calvary's website.
- E. Late Assignments: Assignments will be penalized according to the professor's late policy as explained in Canvas.
- F. Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person's or AI entity's ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. The use of AI generated content in student work is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade. Students should note that papers will be submitted in Canvas via "Turn-It-In". This program automatically gives the students work a plagiarism score, students should strive for a score less than 20.

G. Disabilities: Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support

H. The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all CU students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
