I. DESCRIPTION

A study of Christendom in the course of its development from apostolic times to the end of the church age. The most important persons, problems, decisions and developments are traced. (Prerequisites: EN100 or EN112)

This course is offered in two formats: in-person and online. Students registered for in-person attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. For both in-person and online students, assignments and interaction outside of the class period are done in the learning management system.

II. OBJECTIVES

A. The purpose of this course is to acquaint you with the critical aspects of the history of the Church and help you appreciate the value of studying history. Basic understanding of the following elements will be achieved:

1. Awareness of contributions of key individuals associated with church history. (PLO 1) (Assessments B, D, E)
2. Understanding of major events and movements contributing to church history and be able to assess those events and movements from a Biblical perspective. (PLO 1)
3. Grasp of critical issues driving events. (PLO 1) (Assessments B, C, D, E)
4. Acquire an understanding of the characteristics of the Christian experience. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments A, B, D, E)
5. Gain an appreciation of the range of diverse primary sources, literature, and other media (local, national and international) to illustrate and explore citizenship in other times and places. (PLO 1) (Assessments A, B, D, E)

B. Specific competencies to be achieved. The student:

1. Knows history, how past and present interact, and key historical concepts, including time, chronology, cause and effect, change, conflict, and point of view. (PLO 1) (Assessments B, C, E)
2. Identifies major people, places, and events with their causes and consequences. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments B, C, D, E)

3. Develops the ability to assess historical evidence in order to arrive at sound judgments relative to present and future issues. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments A, B, D, E)
4. Develops the ability to determine the significance of facts, rather than simply memorize them, in order to prepare oneself for intellectual discussions. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments B, C, D, E)
5. Understands how and why individuals (including historians) may hold and espouse different views about the past. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments B, D, E)
6. Understands the linkages between human decisions and consequences, especially from a Biblical perspective. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments B, C, D, E)
7. Understands current and historical examples of the interaction and interdependence of science, technology and society in a variety of cultural settings, especially from a Biblical perspective. (PLO 1, 4) (Assessments B, C, D, E)

III. REQUIREMENTS (ASSESSMENTS)

- A. Reading. You will be expected to complete the assigned reading from Cairns and Shelley. As you read the assignments, pay attention to the general threads of history, and how specific individuals and events fit within the patterns of these movements. Also, you will be required to read Noll's Turning Points: Decisive Moments in the History of Christianity. You will be asked to verify the percent of the assigned reading from the Cairns and Shelley at the end of the course.
- B. Paper. Topic will be a review of an individual, event, or culture within the period and setting of the course. The paper should be no less than eight (8) pages and no more than twelve (12) pages of text (excluding the title page, etc.) and is due not later than indicated in the schedule below. The grade for the paper will be calculated based on the Calvary University evaluation sheet (enclosed). The paper should cite a minimum of three scholarly references using books or peer reviewed articles (including articles sourced from databases such as ProQuest). Internet references may also be used (but may not substitute for the three references required). Students who use the Clark Academic Center (CAC) to review a draft of their paper and provide a copy of the draft signed by a CAC tutor will receive a 5% bonus on the paper. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 9th edition.
- C. Tests. Two (2) tests will be given. The first exam will be conducted at approximately the fourth week, the second test will be the final examination. The exams will be posted on the course Canvas page, and you will be able to access and take the exams over a period of approximately one week. Tests will include true-false, multiple choice, matching, and fill-in questions. Extra credit questions will generally be essay.
- D. Book Report. You will read Mark Noll's Turning Points: Decisive Moments in the History of Christianity and write an eight page book report due as indicated in Canvas. The book report will be organized as follows:
 - a. Introduction

- b. Summary of the book (what did Noll cover in his book)
- c. Major themes (what point[s] is Noll trying to make?) that you identified during your reading
- d. Your assessment of Noll's themes (do you agree with him, why or why not)
- e. Conclusion

E. Lectures and Discussion Questions. You will watch the lecture (online students) and answer discussions questions normally associated with each course lecture. You will comment on at least one classmate's post. Discussion questions are normally due to be completed within one week of posting.

IV. METHODS

- A. Conduct of the class will include a combination of lecture, discussion and question / answer. Student interaction during the conduct of each class session is strongly encouraged.
- B. Grading and Attendance. Attendance accounts for 20% of your overall grade. I expect students to attend class regularly. My attendance policies are:

In class students: there are 16 class sessions in the cycle; each class session is worth 1.25% of your grade. I will deduct 1.25% from your grade for each unexcused absence.

For online students, I will take attendance once a week on Friday. Attendance is based on academic activity, which includes responding to discussion questions, submitting research papers, book reports or similar assignments, or taking an examination. I will deduct 2.50% from your grade for each week in which an online student fails to demonstrate academic activity

In computing the final grade, I will weigh the work of the course in the following proportions:

First Examination	15%
Final Examination	15%
Discussion Questions	20%
Research Paper	15%
Book Report	15%
Attendance	20%

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person's or AI entity's ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated. Most assignments at Calvary require the student to produce original work. Therefore, unless specifically permitted by the instructor, the use of AI-generated content is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. AI, however, may be utilized in cases where the instructor has explicitly permitted its use to accomplish specific tasks. It is only in these cases that AI-generated (or modified) content may be submitted by the student. If there are any questions as to the permissibility of AI use for an assignment, please ask your instructor for clarification.

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu) is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
