III. MATERIALS

A. Required:

1. Bible.

-The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

2. Turabian, Kate L. A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations. Ninth edition. Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2018. ISBN: 978-0226430577. Cost: $18.00. 464 pages.

IV. REQUIREMENTS

Note: Specific instructions for each assignment are posted in Canvas.

A. Select a ministry-related graduate-level research topic – Proposal.

1. Consult with the Course Instructor to identify an acceptable research topic.
2. Submit the Thesis Proposal form and an initial bibliography.

B. Present a Thesis research proposal – Syllabus.

1. Following the process learned in RT615, submit a Thesis Syllabus.
2. This Thesis Syllabus will be approximately 2,500 words plus a bibliography.

C. Research and write chapters 1 & 2 of the Thesis.

1. Submit the draft of Chapter 1 of the Thesis. This chapter will demonstrate the need for research on the ministry-related topic. The general method of inquiry must also be outlined and explained in this chapter.
2. Submit the draft of Chapter 2 of the Thesis. This chapter will constitute the biblical and theological study of the selected topic.

D. Research and write chapters 3, 4, & 5 of the Thesis.

1. Submit the draft of Chapter 3 of the Thesis. This chapter will reveal the research findings, analysis, and conclusions of others pertaining to the research topic and your critique of the same.
2. Submit the draft of Chapter 4 of the Thesis. This chapter will present your answer to the research question / problem. It will incorporate your conclusions and recommendations in a well-reasoned application to a ministry-related context.
3. Submit the draft of Chapter 5 of the Thesis. This chapter will present in summary fashion your thesis and argument. It will also include suggestions for further study.

E. Prepare the other elements of the Thesis.

1. Submit the other elements of a Thesis: Title page, Abstract page, Contents page, List of Illustrations page (optional), List of Tables page, (optional), Abbreviations page, Appendices (optional), and Bibliography.

F. Submit the final copy of the Thesis.

1. Following the course instructor's review of the Draft of the Thesis, you will make all recommended changes (i.e., to assignments C, D, & E).
2. Submit the final revised copy of the Thesis.

About written assignments: Unless directed otherwise, all written assignments must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 9th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update.

About Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person's or AI entity's ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated. Most assignments at Calvary require the student to produce original work. Therefore, unless specifically permitted by the instructor, the use of AI-generated content is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. AI, however, may be utilized in cases where the instructor has explicitly permitted its use to accomplish specific tasks. It is only in these cases that AI-generated (or modified) content may be submitted by the student. If there are any questions as to the permissibility of AI use for an assignment, please ask your instructor for clarification. (Note: Turn-It-In.com will be used to verify assignment integrity.)

About course grade: See the grading scale in the University Catalog for specific grading scale that will be used for final course grade.
