Credit: 3 Semester hours
Semester: Fall 2025
Time: Session #2 (October 20th-December 12th)
Professor: Dr. Luther Smith MRS, MACP, Psy.D.
Email: luther.smith@calvary.edu

I. DESCRIPTION

The course is designed to help the student understand the various dynamics of death, dying, and grief through a conscientious study of God's Word (Prerequisite: CO244 Introduction to Counseling).

Students will be exposed to sensitive subject matter throughout this course. It will be important to demonstrate self-awareness and sensitivity while engaging in this material.

This course includes both in-person and online students together. In-person students attend classes in person, online students attend the class via the online classroom (Canvas). All interaction and assignments for in-person and online students are done in the online classroom (Canvas).

II. OBJECTIVES

A. General competencies to be achieved:

1. Students will learn the Biblical worldview of death, dying, and grief (PLO 1, 2).
2. Students will learn a Biblical approach to caring for the grieving person (PLO 3, 4, 5, 6).
3. The student will receive practical tools for caring for counselees through the grieving process (PLO 3, 4, 5, 6).
4. Students will learn how to assess the spiritual and physical needs of those facing death, dying, and grief situations (PLO 3, 4, 5, 6).

B. Specific competencies to be achieved:

1. Students will be able to articulate the Biblical worldview of death, dying, and grief (PLO 1, 2).
2. Students will demonstrate an ability to communicate the Biblical worldview of death, dying, and grief response through appropriate evangelism and discipleship ministry (PLO 3, 4, 5, 6).
3. Students will demonstrate an ability to utilize the Biblical approach in caring for those facing death, dying and grief situations (PLO 3, 4, 5, 6).

III. REQUIREMENTS

A. Reading Assignments

1. Reading Journals: (Four (4) pages each) The student will write a Four (4) page journal following each class period that demonstrates a mastery of the reading assignment and class material and the student's personal reflection on what they read from the chapters in the book. The student will also need to demonstrate the ability to compare this information. Each journal will be due according to the course schedule. There will be a total of six (6) journals. Each journal will be worth 50 points (GC 1, 2, 3, 4; SC 1, 2, 3, 4, 5).
2. Death, Dying, and Grief Discussion: Note: You must have a webcam to complete this assignment. The student will post a 5–10-minute response video (or audio response) with a discussion that is supplied by the instructor on Canvas. Each reflection and discussion will come from the information from the book and how it is related to the lectures covered in class. Each student will post a 3–5-minute reply video to at least two of their classmates. There will be a total of six (6) discussions. Each one will be worth 50 points (GC 1, 2, 3, 4; SC 1, 2, 3, 4, 5).

B. Written Assignments

1. Death, Dying, and Grief Case Study Paper –The student will write a paper on a case study on a counselee concerning death, dying, and grief. The student will write about the psychological, sociological, and spiritual aspect of the counselee and their experience. The student will also discuss how the student as the counselor would guide and advise the counselee in the case study through the process. The paper will be 8-10 pages in length, which does not include the cover page and the bibliography. The paper is worth 400 points (GC 1, 2, 3, 4; SC 1, 2, 3, 4, 5).
1. Discussion Posts and Responses (GC 1, 2, 4; SC 1, 2, 3)
Students will participate in six discussion posts on Canvas. Each post will interact around four things for discussion: (1) Summary of content including author's/presenter's theme and main point, (2) An assessment of how the content does/does not reflect the Biblical worldview, (3) Highlights the student found in the material, and (4) Specific aspects that can be used to build a Biblical counseling approach from the material presented.

V. MATERIALS

A. Bible

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

B. Required Textbooks

Alcorn, Randy. If God is Good: Faith in the Midst of Suffering and Evil. Multnomah Books, 2009. ISBN# 978-1-60142-132-6 Price: 8.00.

Wiersbe, David and Warren. Ministering to the Mourning: A practical guide for Pastors, Church Leaders, and other Caregivers. Moody Publishers, Chicago, IL, 2006.

VI. CLASS POLICIES

Academic Dishonesty

Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person's or AI entity's ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. The use of AI generated content in student work is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated.

A Secondary Statement Regarding Using AI For All Reports/Projects

Artificial intelligence (AI) in academic use could be beneficial for you as the student. However, when misused it may limit your ability to think critically. As the professor I cannot catch nor stop you in the act of using AI for your papers and research. However, it is my expectation that you as the student will do your best by your ability and skill as a human being in the subject(s) that you desire to study. Below is the percentage threshold concerning the effort you put in your paper and the presence of AI within your paper.

Our Mission: To Prepare Christians to serve in the church and the world according to the Biblical worldview.

0-10 percent of AI*	No points deducted from your paper/project.
11-20 percent of AI*	A third of your overall points are deducted from your paper/project.
21-30 percent of AI*	75% of your overall points will be deducted from your paper/project.
30+ Percent of AI	You will receive no points for the paper/project.

Keep in mind this deduction is added to the points that you would lose due to other things (Improper writing style, grammar, etc.).

Writing Style

All class papers must follow the APA style according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 7th edition. You can find APA resources under the Getting Started Checklist located in the Introduction to Biblical Counseling Course on Canvas.

Late Work

Papers, projects, etc. are due at the class period assigned. Unless under an emergency or an extreme circumstance, which will be determined at the discretion of the instructor, no late work will be accepted.

Accommodations Statement

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing Jamie Franz the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.

Learning Center

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, provides free academic assistance for all students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.

Our Mission: To Prepare Christians to serve in the church and the world according to the Biblical worldview.
