I. DESCRIPTION

This course will help the student learn the inductive method of Bible study following the steps of observation, interpretation, application, and correlation. Students will learn how to use the literal historical grammatical hermeneutic to interpret the Bible. Students will be introduced to traditional dispensationalism which distinguishes Israel and the Church.

 This course is offered in two formats: in-person and online. Students registered for in-person attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. For both in-person and online students, assignments and interaction outside of the class period are done in the learning management system.*

II. OBJECTIVES

A. General competencies to be achieved:

1. Discover a new appreciation for the wonder and precision of God's Word (PLO 1,5) (A 1,2,3,4,5,6,7, 8, 9, 10)
2. Develop a competence in interpretation of Scripture that will enhance a lifetime of service to our Lord (PLO 1, 5) (A 1,2,3,4,5,7, 8 ,9, 10)
3. Discern the complexities involved in correctly interpreting Scripture from a Biblical Hermeneutic (PLO 1, 4) (A1,2,3,4,5,6,7)
4. Determine the indispensable nature of inductive Bible study for faith and practice, for life and ministry (PLO 1,2,3,4,5) (A 1,2,3,4,5,6,7, 8, 9, 10)

Our Mission: To prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to a Biblical worldview

5. Demonstrate a knowledge of the distinction between hermeneutics and exegesis (PLO 1,2,5) (A 1)

B. Specific competencies to be achieved:

1. Acquire skills in the inductive method of Bible study that will lead to accurate exposition of the Word of God, and then to personal application (PLO 1,4,5) (A ,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10)
2. Learn to apply the grammatical-historical-contextual principles of hermeneutical analysis to the whole of Scripture (PLO 1,2) (A 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10)
3. Demonstrate skill in analyzing words, verses, segments, and books of Scripture (PLO1,2) (A 2,3,4,7,8,9,10)
4. Demonstrate skill in dealing with different genres of Scripture (PLO 1,2) (A 6,10)
5. Learn new ways to study the Bible for personal devotions (PLO 1,5) (A 2,3,4,6,7,8,9,10)

III. TEXTBOOKS

- A. The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

VI. HELP FOR STUDENTS

- A. Disabilities: Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.
- B. The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu) is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service

VII. EXPECTATIONS

All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update.

Late Assignments: Assignments will be lowered 10% if not turned in on the due date.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person's or AI entity's ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. The use of AI generated content in student work is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade.

Attendance:

Attendance accounts for 20% of your overall grade. I expect students to attend class regularly. My attendance policies are:

- In class students: there are 2 class sessions per week in the semester; each class session is worth 1.25% of your grade. I will deduct 1.25% from your grade for each unexcused absence.
- For online students: I will take attendance once a week. Attendance is based on academic activity, which includes weekly lecture attendance report, responding to discussion questions, submitting research papers, book reports or similar assignments, or taking an examination. I will deduct 2.50% from your grade for each week in which an online student fails to demonstrate academic activity.
